UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

COLONEL WILL A. GUNN

Colonel Will A. Gunn is the Department of Defense (DoD) Office of Military Commissions (OMC) acting Chief Defense Counsel. He is responsible for supervising all defense activities and the efforts of Detailed Defense Counsel to ensure zealous representation of all Accused referred to trial before a military commission. His duties also include administering the Civilian Defense Counsel pool for military commissions and advising the DoD General Counsel on matters relating to military commission defense activities.

Colonel Gunn is a 1980 graduate of the United States Air Force Academy (graduating with military honors). After graduation, Colonel Gunn served as an Admissions Advisor for the Academy and later served as a Contract Negotiator. In 1983, he was selected for the Air Force Funded Legal Education Program, attending Harvard Law School and graduating cum laude in 1986. Colonel Gunn has held a variety of assignments including service as an Assistant Staff Judge Advocate, Area Defense Counsel, Circuit Defense Counsel, Trial Attorney for the Air Force General Litigation Division's Military Personnel Branch, Instructor at the Air Force Judge Advocate General School, Wing Staff Judge Advocate, Chief Circuit Defense Counsel, and Executive Officer to the Air Force Judge Advocate General. In 1990, Colonel Gunn was selected as a White House Fellow and was assigned to the Executive Office of the President as an Associate Director of Cabinet Affairs. He holds a Master of Laws degree in Environmental Law from George Washington University and is admitted to practice law before the Supreme Court of the State of Florida.

He is a native of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.
