GEORGE WALKER BUSH,)
President of the United States,)
et al. ,)
)
Respondents.)

NOTICE

On August 23, 2007, the Court ordered the parties to indicate whether the Petitioners remain at Guantánamo. They do not, having been released by the United States while the case was pending in the Supreme Court. In addition, and unlike Mamdouh Habib, Petitioner in Case Number 02-cv-1130, it appears the United States has not subjected Messrs. Rasul and Iqbal to additional restrictions as a result of their detention. Accordingly, Petitioners have no objection to dismissal of this action.¹

Dated: August 30, 2007

Respectfully submitted,

Counsel for Petitioners

¹ See Opposition to Dismissal, Habib, et al. v. Bush, et al., No. 02-CV-1130 (filed with Court Security Office August 13, 2007). On August 3, 2007, the Court conditionally dismissed the litigation in Habib but gave the parties till August 17 to file objections. Mr. Habib filed his objection with the Court Security Officer August 13, but did not receive permission from the United States to file it on the public record until August 30, 2007.
