

2. The Allied Educational Foundation (AEF) is a non-profit charitable and educational foundation based in Englewood, New Jersey. Founded in 1964, AEF is dedicated to promoting education in diverse areas of study, such as law and public policy, and has appeared as amicus curiae in the federal courts on national security-related issues on a number of occasions.

3. Amici believe that military commissions are an effective and constitutional means of bringing to justice enemy belligerents who violate the law of war, and that there are at least some instances in which the federal courts' criminal justice system is not up to the task. Amici also believe that, in the interests of comity and efficient administration of the courts, any challenge to the military commission system established by President Bush should be deferred until after the system has been allowed to operate.

4. Respondents filed their cross-motion to dismiss on Friday, August 6, 2004. Amici have been prepared to file their proposed brief at all times thereafter. However, before amici could file, the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Washington issued an order on August 9 transferring the case to this Court. Thereafter, amici delayed their filing until the case could be docketed in this Court and assigned to a judge. Because no deadline has been established for the filing of Petitioner's response to the cross-motion to dismiss, Petitioner will have more than sufficient time to review amici's proposed brief and include within his response any response he wishes to make to the proposed amicus brief.

5. Counsel for amici contacted counsel for Petitioner and Respondents regarding this motion. Counsel for all parties stated that they have no objection to the motion. Amici also note that while the case was pending in Seattle, the district judge granted leave for the filing of an amicus brief in opposition to Respondents' July 16, 2004 motion to dismiss or transfer.

6. Amici have no direct interest in the outcome of this case and thus bring to the case a perspective that is distinct from that of any of the parties. Accordingly, amici believe that their brief may be of significant assistance to the Court in resolving the legal issues raised by the petition and the pending cross-motion to dismiss.

WHEREFORE, the Washington Legal Foundation and the Allied Educational Foundation respectfully request that the Court grant their motion for leave to file. A proposed order is attached.

Respectfully submitted,
